LITTLE RINK GIRL IS BADLY BURNED BY OIL

A CAN OF WATERPROOFING OIL
EXPLODES AND SCATTERS
LIQUID FIRE.

PARENTS ACTION SAVED HER LIFE

Sarah Elizabeth Was Scantily Dressed and Clothing Ignited Easily—Skin Burned from Feet and Limbs.

Sarah Elizabeth Rink, the six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rink, 705 First street, went through a terrible experience this morning which might have cost her her life, when a can of oil exploded and scattered burning fluid over her clothing and body.

Her father, Frank Rink, was warming a small can of waterproofing oil which is used in waterproofing shoes. He had placed the can on a shelf in front of the stove for a few minutes and when it became thoroughly warmed he picked it up and placed it on the floor, near where his little daughter was sitting on a chair with only her night-dress and a pair of little woolen bedroom slippers on. As soon as he had deposited the can on the floor it exploded with considerable force and in an instant the little girl was in flames, for the burning oil was scattered over the lower part of her night-dress and on her slippers.

The parents rushed to her assistance and it was only their prompt and fearless actions that saved her life. They used strenuous means to extinguish the flames, rolling her in rugs on the floor, etc., but before the blaze was extinguished the slipper had been burned from her right foot, taking the skin with it, and her right limb was also severely burned. A physician was called immediately and first aid remedies were used until he arrived. The little girl is resting as easily as could be expected this afternoon.

Mr. Rink also suffered somewhat from burns received while extinguishing the fire.

MRS. KINNEY NOW HAS GOOD CHANCE

TO RECOVER FROM WOUNDS INFLICTED BY HER SUICIDE HUSBAND—MAUGER GOES HOME.

Mrs. Maud Kinney continues to show most hopeful signs and unless some new condition develops she will very likely recover from the three wounds inflicted by her husband when, in a fit of insane jealousy he shot her Tuesday evening, afterward killing himself. The woman's vitality is very surprising and her outlook now is very encouraging.

FUNERAL TODAY.

The funeral of her suicide husband, George Kinney, was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the scene of the tragedy, the Kinney home, at 417 Highland avenue, Rev. F. D. Altman officiated and burial was at Oakwood.

MANGER LEAVES CITY.

Wilford Mauker, the young fellow of whom the officials believe Kinney was jealous, thus causing him to attempt the murder of his wife, and to shoot himself, left Dixon for his home at Wilmington yesterday. He refused to say anything further concerning the tragedy he witnessed, other than that Kinney had absolutely no grounds to be jealous of him.

LEE COUNTY GETS $7883 FOR SCHOOLS

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT RECEIVES TWO WARRANTS FROM STATE AUDITOR.

County Superintendent L. W. Miller today received from the office of the state auditor two warrants for Lee county's share of the school fund and interest thereon, the amount received being the same as last year. A warrant for $7609.73 to be drawn from the distributable fund, and one for $273.58 for interest were Lee county's receipts.

In the spring this amount, together with the fines that are turned into the school fund, will be distributed among the various schools of the county. The amount to be so divided this year will be much greater than last, because the states attorney has since Dec. 1 been drawing a salary, and all fees from his prosecution of cases will go into the school fund.

WHEELING SUFFERS IN OHIO FLOOD

LAST TRAIN INTO CITY PLOWED
THROUGH 18 INCHES
OF WATER.

WORST CONDITION SINCE 1907

All the Service Companies and Steel
Mills Are Tied Up—Gas Supply Is Off.

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 10—Special to Telegraph—The Ohio river reached a stage of 44 feet today, and this city is now suffering from its worst flood since 1907. That flood and the one of 1884 are the only two in history which are worse than the present one.

The B. & O. has run its last train into the city from the east, and it plowed through 18 inches of water for nearly half a mile before reaching the station.

The railroad, trolley lines and the steamboats are all out of commission and the city is practically isolated from the rest of the world. The natural gas supply has been cut off in some sections of the city and the iron and steel mills have been forced to shut down, throwing 10,000 men out of employment.

CONSIDER PAYING ON WATER STREET

RAILROAD OFFICIALS ARE HERE TO CONFER WITH MAYOR.

H. H. Becker, Engineer of Maintenance of the C. & N. W. R. R.; H. M. Eicholtz, Division Superintendent of the C. & N. W., and an official of the I. C. R. R., arrived in Dixon this morning at 11 o'clock and called upon Mayor Brinton to confer with him concerning the paying of River street.

It is the mayor's desire to see the street running along the south side of the river bricked from Hennepin avenue to the Standard Oil tanks, and it is to be hoped that he will succeed in his efforts. A paved street there would transform a slimy, muddy, dirty and almost impassable road into a veritable parkway. It is the shortest and easiest connection to the Grand Detour road and would be used exclusively by motorists as well as for heavy hauling.

MANY ENTRIES ARE MADE FOR THE SHOW

INDICATIONS ARE FOR REMARK-ABLY SUCCESSFUL POULTRY SHOW NEXT WEEK.

The poultry show to be held in this city next week promises to be one of the best held in this portion of the state this season and congregated here will be hundreds of the best birds which have carried off the honors at neighboring shows. Secy. R. M. Ayres has already received many entries and each mail adds to the number. These annual exhibitions are given by the Dixon association to stimulate interest in the raising of thoroughbred fowls and many persons have become 'chicken fanciers.'

Everyone at all interested in poultry should make it a point to visit the show next week at Rosbrook hall and in order that all may do so at a nominal admission, a transferable ticket good for six admissions has been issued this year. Not only will a visitor have a chance to see beautiful fowls, but he can secure much valuable information and pointers from breeders. Judge C. H. Rhodes of Topeka, Kas., will one evening during the week give a talk on the selection and raising of poultry which will be instructive as well as entertaining.

Few people realize how many persons are engaged in raising chickens, both for the market and for the show room. It has grown to be an important industry and on the large poultry farms much money has been expended in equipment. The coming show will be an educational exhibition, with many interesting features for those who are fond of the feathered tribe.

ASSOCIATION HAD ITS GREATEST YEAR

ANNUAL REPORT OF GENERAL SECRETARY GRATIFYING TO BOARD MEMBERS.

ON SELF-SUSTAINING BASIS

Directors Vote Their Appreciation For the Care With Which the Work Has Been Done.

The yearly report of General Secretary E. T. Bailey of the Young Men's Christian association, which was submitted at the annual meeting of the association last evening, shows the most prosperous year in the history of the association, and at the conclusion of the statement the directors voted Mr. Bailey their appreciation for the care with which he has conducted the association, the attentiveness with which he has watched the details and his success in conducting the association on a self-sustaining basis.

Departmental Reports.

Mr. Bailey's report covered the work of the year as it was accomplished in the several departments, and a brief resume of the showing is of interest. In speaking of the building, the secretary recalled that two new boilers had been necessary during the year, one to heat the building and the other the pool. The two boilers had been installed at a cost of $537, and in addition several repairs had been made. He advocated some painting during the coming spring.

Executive Officers.

Under this head Mr. Bailey recalled the departure of former Physical Director Guy L. Park for Freemont, Neb., and the engagement of Charles Webster to fill the vacancy. He extolled the work of Mr. Webster, Mr. Coons and Office Secretary Eichenberg.

The report shows that the dormitories have been well filled all the year, and that the matron has exhibited great care in keeping them in order.

The physical department is in excellent condition, according to Mr. Bailey. Great improvements have been made at the bowling alleys, the pool, bath and locker rooms, and some new apparatus has been added.

The boys' department of the association has been more successful this year than ever before in the history of the work. Over 100 boys are now enrolled and are doing systematic work under the direction of Messrs. Webster and Eichenberg. The young fellows have their own religious, social and physical work, and in the spring the Boy Scouts will be organized.

Membership Statistics.

A gain of seven members was made during the year, the total on Jan. 1, 1912, being 325; Jan. 1, 1913 it was 332. Nine have become sustaining members, and the Dixon association still holds fourth place among the associations of the state in the ratio of membership to population.

The average attendance at the building was 180 per day, while the social work has been much more successful than ever before, because of the assistance and co-operation of the Young People's societies of the city. Mr. Bailey also reported that because of the numerous talks he had made in the country and surrounding towns there have been a large number of country visitors at the building.

Religious Work.

Although the Sunday afternoon meetings, which formerly were the basis of all Y. M. C. A. religious work, have not been held regularly, the report is to the effect that religious work is being done every day in the week. There are 175 enrolled in the Bible study classes, and the average attendance at the meetings of the Teachers' Training class during 1912 was 45 each meeting. Personal talks were had by the general secretary with 127 young men, and in many of these cases great good resulted.

Mr. Bailey reported that the association is co-operating with nearly every church in the state, that eight addresses were made in the country

GAME WITH POLO WILL TEST
ABILITY OF LOCAL BASKET BALL BUNCH.

The Dixon union high school basketball team will this evening engage in one of the hardest games on its schedule, when it goes to Polo to take on the fast team of that place. The locals realize that they are going up against a hard proposition, but are determined to put up their best game, and there is a commendable feeling of confidence among the players and the fans who will accompany them.

One week from tomorrow the Dixon team will entertain the Sterling high school aggregation, champions of Whiteside county, in this city.

OFFICIALS NOW FAVOR AUTOPSY

TAKE UP BRYAN CASE

Reports from Sterling indicate that the officials there have at last been aroused from their state of coma, and that they will at last conduct an investigation into the manner in which Leonard Bryan met his death. Ludens has finally noticed that there were many unexplained things in the tragedy and that he admits an investigation should be made. Acting on this statement Coroner Frey came back with the announcement that if the states attorney would appoint two doctors to make the examination he would issue the order for the disinterment of the remains and the performing of the autopsy.

DECIDES WILL CASE AGAINST THE CHURCH

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL OF STERLING LOSES 160 ACRE FARM BY COURT'S DECISION.

Morrison, Jan. 10—Special to Telegraph—Judge Ramsey in the circuit court here this afternoon held that the will of John Burk, placing his 160 acre farm near Tampico in trust for St. Mary's parochial school of Sterling, was null and void. The case has been fought hard and the judge holds that because of the uncertainty of the will it is null and void.

The land in question is located about one mile from Tampico and is worth about $200 an acre. When the will leaving it all in trust for the school was filed for probate the heirs started the suit, with the above result. Attorneys for the school state that they will appeal the case.

HOUSE ADJOURNS AFTER 26TH BALLOT

LEGISLATIVE DEADLOCK CONTINUES AND GOV. DUNNE IS URGED TO ENTER FIGHT.

INAUGURATION IS POSTPONED

Failure to Select Speaker Results in Calling Off Inauguration
Monday.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 10—Special to Telegraph—After taking two ballots on the speakership fight this morning the house adjourned until 5 p. m. Monday, and in the interim frantic efforts will be made to settle the big fight. The 26th ballot which was the last one taken today, stood:

Tice	50
Rapp	11
McLaughlin	21
Ryan	4
Hubbard	16
Karch	12
Carter	24
Stedman	3
McKinley	8

Prevents Inauguration.

The failure of the house to agree on a speaker and thus preventing a selection of United States senator, has resulted in the calling off of Gov.-Elect Dunne's inauguration on Monday.

The new governor has the key to the speakership deadlock, and unless he can be prevailed upon to select a candidate and help elect him, the legislative tie-up is likely to continue indefinitely.

WHY WATCH SIGNS

ALL POINT TO 8:18

Nearly all the watch signs, probably 90 out of 100, have their hands set at 8:18, but comparatively few know why this is. It is no accident. W. K. Washburn of New York was painting a sign for a jeweler of that city when the news of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, April 14, 1865, was received in New York and the jeweler ordered the painter to paint upon the dial the exact time the fatal shot was fired, namely, at 8:18, and so it has continued ever since. Whenever you see a sign after this recall to yourself that it points to the fatal moment.

DEMENTTOWN ... DOINGS

One would think, after reading last night's Telegraph and noticing the ads therein that one or two of the Dixon clothing merchants were arranging to have a sale.

The recent snows have raised the dickens with the water wagon, and many of its passengers have gotten off because of the slow progress that was being made.

However, as far as can be ascertained, none of the falls were hard.

Goose Hollow Letter

Deacon Stubbs of our meeting house started on a tour down to the city yesterday, and there is much fear for his safety, as nobody has received any picture post cards yet. His wife told him before leavin' not to blow out any gas nor in any money. The deacon, however, confided in some of his friends that he was going to have a good time and see the sights if it cost him five dollars. Deacons at hum and deacons abroad is two kinds of deacons. The last time the deacon went to the city he was bound to see all the public institutions and wandered into the pest-house. He returned home, came down with the smallpox and it cost the taxpayers of this village $476.39 to keep him in quarantine and idleness. Nothin' like enjoyin' yourself at somebody else's expense.

Constable Ezra Hand got fooled nice down to the city the other day when he bought a cream puff to eat. He says it must have been pretty bad as it was soft and squishy as thunder on the inside, so he throwed it away without sayin' anything. He says he never hollers when he gets stung.

Blonde trimmers seem to be all the go nowadays. Miss Amy Pringle has had seven of them at her millinery emporium hand running lately Elmer Jones says most men like blonde women and blonde women like most men.

CASCARETS CLEANSE LIVER AND BOWELS

The Millions of Cascaret Users Never Have Headache, Constipation, Biliousness or Sick Stomach.

It is more necessary that you keep your Bowels, Liver and Stomach clean, pure and fresh than it is to keep the sewers and drainage of a large city free from obstruction.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermented food and foul gases; take the excessive bile from the liver and carry out the system the constipated waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

No odds how badly and upset you feel, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

BALKAN PEACE UP TO GREAT POWERS

Turkey Will Not Request Resumption of Peace Negotiations, Says Envoy.

WON'T GIVE UP ADRIANOPE

Bulgarian Representative Receives Note That the Garrison and Population of Fort Had Exhausted City's Food Supply.

London, Jan. 10.—Formal announcement that Turkey will not request a resumption of the peace negotiations was made here by Rechad Pasha, the chief Turkish delegate. He said: "Insofar as I am concerned, the whole matter now rests entirely with the great powers. I am not prepared to ask for a renewal of the peace conference without direct instructions from Constantinople."

"We have ceded everything possible, while the allies have conceded nothing. We gave up 20,000 kilometers of Turkish territory and they have given up nothing of their demands. They came into the conference in the most unconciliatory spirit and that was their attitude throughout."

Will Not Give Up Adrianople. "Turkey absolutely refuses to give up Adrianople. Even if the allies capture the city we will not give it up when finally peace is made. The population of Adrianople is essentially Turkish, so the desire to possess it cannot be a matter of sentiment with the Bulgarians."

Likewise with the Aegean Islands. They are indispensable to the defense of the Dardanelles, but are not a menace to any other nation, while Turkey holds them."

Break Off Negotiations.

Doctor Daneff, the chief Bulgarian delegate, announced that the negotiations between General Savoff, commander of the Bulgarian army, and Nazim Pasha, the Turkish commander, had been broken off. Savoff refusing to allow the Turks to reoccupy Adrianople. Doctor Daneff received a long cipher message from General Savoff stating that the garrison and population of Adrianople had practically exhausted the city's food supply and could not hold out much longer.

Powers Making Strong Effort.

The powers are making determined efforts to bring the Balkan disputants to terms. It is believed that they are bringing pressure to bear upon Turkey to consent to the cession of Adrianople to Bulgaria and probably Turkey will find it convenient to bow to the inevitable, though the sublime porte, according to a Constantinople dispatch, is putting a bold face on the matter by informing the powers that if the Balkan peace delegates have not accepted Turkey's proposals by the end of the week the Turkish delegates will be recalled immediately.

80,000 Persons Very Ill.

Belgrade, Jan. 10.—Fugitives from the fortress of Adrianople who have reached the Serbian camp in front of that city report that the only food obtainable inside the walls is bread. The rations distributed to inhabitants and soldiers have now been reduced to four ounces per head daily. Eighty thousand persons are sick.

LET'S BE JOYFUL

They tell us that it's naughty to have the mopes and blues; that great men, proud and haughty, such foolish stunts refuse; there is no sort of beauty in gloom, the wise ones say, so let us do our duty—let's chortle and be gay. Oh, let's go round a-whooping and tell our joys abroad; let's kick the guy that's drooping, and swat him for a fraud; there isn't any sense in a long and solemn face; so let us go and fence in the joys all round the place. The blues—oh we should beat them and chase them twenty miles; our sorrows—we should treat them to double-act smiles; there isn't any reason—at least so the wise ones claim, to know one gloomy season in all life's fitful game. So let's be glad and happy, let's whoop and sing a song; let's all be strong and scrappy, and boost the world along. The melancholy fellow, whose nights and days are blue, is also streaked with yellow—a quitter through and through.

$20,000 GONE IN GAMBLING

Millionaire Causes Arrests and Closing of Dives at Hot Springs.

Hot Springs, Ark., Jan. 10.—Alleging he had been swindled out of $20,000 in the Indiana club, Frank P. Fox, a hotel millionaire of Terre Haute, Ind., caused the arrest of Joseph Aberly and Arthur Slavin, employees of the club, one of the city's most pretentious "palaces of chance," and had warrants issued for Joseph Denton and a man named Wilkes, who was locked up at Little Rock. Wilkes' right name is said to be Charles Woods. Immediately after hearing the complaint Sheriff Williams closed every gambling house in the city.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

Tonight the Princess theatre will exhibit a wonderful war picture in two reels entitled 'When Lee Surrenders.' This photo play will startle you with its wonderful scenes, battles that the Kay. Bee Co. has spared no expense to make realistic. Do not miss it, if you do you will regret it. The Gaumont Weekly will also be shown, giving all the important news happenings during the past week.

A 'ROYAL SLAVE.'

'A Royal Slave' will appear at the Dixon Opera house Sunday, Jan. 12. The following clipping taken from a recent edition of the Sunday 'Grit,' Williamsport, Pa., speaks for itself: Miss Irene Solomon and her excellent company returned to the Lycoming theatre Saturday for an engagement of one night and a matinee. It is something like six months since the attraction played here, but to judge from the enthusiastic welcome she and her company received an un-informed person might have been led to believe that several seasons had elapsed prior to their reappearance here Saturday. 'A Royal Slave' with Miss Solomon as the Countess, is always a signal for a packed house, and such was the case when the curtain went up on the first act of this well known drama at the Saturday matinee. This interesting play in five acts is a dramatization by Clarence Bennett of General Lev Wallace's famous, 'A Fair God.' This is to be the farewell season of this time-tried and what has proven to be a most remarkable and successful theatrical offering. Next season Mr. Bubbs will feature Miss Solomon in a new play, entitled, 'The Warning Bell.' This is also from the pen of Mr. Bennett, and no doubt will prove a worthy successor to his former efforts 'The Holy

City,' and 'A Royal Slave.'—Sunday 'Grit,' Williamsport, Pa.
Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

'THE THIRD DEGREE.'

Charles Klein was prompted to write 'The Third Degree' after reading of the execution of the wrong man for the crime, to which he confessed after having been subject to a 14-hour examination by the police. Several years after the execution the guilty party confessed and died in prison. Mr. Klein, when he read the details, became so wrought up that he forthwith arranged with Henry B. Harris for the production of the play, and that he struck a popular chord is best shown by the legislation and court ruling against preliminary investigations of the police of the larger cities. At the Opera House tonight.

The stockholders of the Colson Clothing company, operating stores at Mendota and Amboy, held their regular annual business meeting at Mendota on Thursday. In the evening an elaborate banquet was given, at which all the employees of the company, together with the officers and directors of the company, were present.

J. H. Long died at the Amboy hospital Wednesday evening after being a patient at the institution for several weeks. He had been a resident of this city for many years and had many friends.

Aviator and Machine Plunge Into Sandusky Bay—Is Not Hurt.

Sandusky, O., Jan. 10.—Aviator Weldon B. Cooke of Oakland, Cal., drove a hydroaeroplane into 22 feet of water through an air hole while experimenting preparatory to attempting a flight to Cedar Point, four miles away, and return, after arising from Sandusky bay. He saved himself by scrambling through the rigging to the top of a plane upon which he maintained a foothold until the machine all but rested on the bottom, when he swam until rescuers with a rope got to him and pulled him to firm ice.

GLEASON SUIT DISMISSED

Case Against Mrs. Thaw for $53,000 Attorney Fees Thrown Out.

New York, Jan. 10.—Judge Mayer in the federal district court granted the defendant's motion for a dismissal of the suit in the action of John B. Gleason to recover $53,000 attorneys fees from Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw in payment for the part he took in the defense of Harry Thaw at his first trial for the murder of Stanford White. Gleason was directed to pay the costs. It was Mrs. Thaw's contention that her son had retained Gleason and she was not responsible for his acts.

CANTEEN LAW URGED

Secretary Stimson Wants Bartholdt's Bill Passed.

Declares Army Is Worse Off Without Than With It—General Wood
Favors Measure.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Secretary of War Stimson, Surgeon General Torney, Brigadier General Witherspoon and Representative Bartholdt of Missouri appeared before the house military affairs committee to urge Mr.
Bartholdt's bill to restore the canteen to the army.

Secretary Stimson said that without the canteen conditions were worse than when the sale of beer and light wines was allowed at army posts. He stated that the government was anxious to clean out the red light district of Colon before the Panama canal opened for traffic.

Surgeon General Torney said that at the Presidio in California there had been much intemperance by the soldiers because of the large number of saloons just outside the post.

"When men come into the army,"
said Gen. Leonard Wood, chief of staff, "men from families where drinking is permitted and find it no place where they can buy a drink it puts them in a precarious situation. I am in favor of the canteen under careful restrictions, to be run much as it is in the British army."

Using Mails to Defraud.

New York, Jan. 10.—Cameron Spear, Archibald Frederick Collins and Charles L. Vaughan were found guilty here on all five counts of the indictment charging conspiracy and use of the mails to defraud in promoting the sale of stocks in wireless telephone companies. The cases were before Judge Hunt in the United States district court. Joseph H. Reall, the fourth defendant, was found not guilty.
The maximum penalty is five years' imprisonment and $5,000 fine.

Recommend Ray's Promotion.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Maj. Beecher
E. Ray, whose alleged escapades made senators a bit critical of the advisability of his promotion to a colonelcy, was favorably acted upon by the military committee and his nomination recommended.

New York, Jan. 10.—Representatives of the Brotherhood of Locomotive railroads agreed to ask Judge Martin

A. Knapp of the United States commerce court and Commissioner of Labor Charles P. Neill to come to New York, and do what they can toward settling the differences between the men and their employers. This action followed the final refusal of the firemen to consider the managers' proposals.

STRIKERS BURN A MINE

Attack, With Firearms, Coal Train Crew and Drive Them Away.

Charleston, W. Va., Jan. 10.—Rioting was resumed in the Paint Creek section of the Kanawha coal field, where a strike has been in progress since last spring, according to reports received by the military authorities here. The Standard mine of the Standard Gas Coal company was fired and was reported as burning fiercely. The crew of a coal train was attacked near the Holly Grove railroad yards, not far from a camp maintained by the striking miners. The men were driven from the train by scores of shots fired from ambush.

MISSING CRAFTS ARRIVE SAFELY

Repair Ship Panther and Tug Sonoma Reach Guantanamo Port.

VESSELS' CREWS ARE PRAISED

Schooner Edward G. Hight, Scarred and Battered by Storm, With an Exhausted Crew, Is Towed Into Harbor by Revenue Cutter.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Both the repair ship Panther and her attendant tug, the Sonoma, reported "safe in port" to the navy department.

Both vessels reached Guantanamo harbor under their own power, although both were considerably damaged by last Friday's storm, which had completely carried away the Panther's wireless and had torn off the Sonoma's superstructure and lifeboats. The Sonoma, which left Brooklyn two hours before the Panther, reached Guantanamo at one o'clock in the morning while the Panther was not sighted until two o'clock in the afternoon.

Ship's Crew Is Praised.
Both Lieutenant Commander de Stigeur in charge of the repair ship and Chief Boatswain Darrington of the Sonoma paid high tribute to the heroism of their men who rode the storm for 36 hours without rest and took turns at the pumps to prevent the water from extinguishing the boiler fires.

It is expected that both vessels will remain at Guantanamo until they have been overhauled and repaired as much as possible.

The Panther carried a cargo of iron machinery and parts for war vessels and the greater portion of this will probably be needed to refit the two ships. A complete report of the damage done to the vessels is expected here shortly.

Relatives Are Notified.

Immediately on receipt of the news that the Panther had arrived safely Secretary of the Navy Meyer directed that telegrams be sent the relatives of the officers and men on board. This was done because the navy department had been swamped all day under a flood of telegrams and telephone messages begging for news of the missing vessels.

Storm-Scarred Ship in Port.

New London, Conn., Jan. 10.—With sails blown away and crew sick from exhaustion after a two-day battle against hurricane weather, the three-masted schooner Edward G. Hight was towed into port here by the revenue cutter Acushnet. Capt. F. H. Thompson of the Hight came ashore soon after the three-master anchored and made arrangements for treatment of his seven sick men in the United States hospital service.

$1,000,000 FLOOD RUIN

Fifty Thousand Men Made Idle
by Overflow.

Pittsburg Experiences Greatest Inundation That Has Occurred in 47
Years—Suffering Intense.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 10.—The fourth greatest flood in Pittsburg in the last forty-seven years was recorded when a crest of 31.3 feet was reported at the junction of the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers here. The water remained stationary for two hours, then began to fall slowly, and had dropped to 29.12 feet at six o'clock in the evening.

The waters reached Penn avenue and Federal street in the downtown section of Pittsburg, and temporarily shut off business below that point, inundated hundreds of homes in the lower sections of the North side, West end and South side, flooded many of the mills lying the river banks, made approximately 50,000 men idle through manufactories shutting down, and caused in the neighborhood of one million dollars' loss through property damage.

Stories of privation and suffering come from both up and down the rivers, where thousands of homes have been flooded, and relief is being sent from every quarter.

Only three greater floods have occurred in Pittsburg in the last forty-seven years, or since 1865, and in 1907 years that records have been kept there have been only ten more serious inundations.

MOLLY McDONALD

A TALE OF THE FRONTIER

control in the current, the men riding on either side, grasping the bit of the girl's mount. Others had joined the little squad of troopers on the bank, and welcomed her with a cheer. The lieutenant dismounted. At sight of the girl's face he whipped off his hat, and came forward.

"Miss McDonald," he said, pleasantly greeting her, "I am Lieutenant Gaskins, and I have met your father—of the Sixth Infantry, is he not? So glad to be of service, you know. You were in the stage, I understand; a most remarkable escape."

"I owe it all to Sergeant Hamlin," she replied, turning to glance toward the latter. "He bore me away unconscious in his arms. Indeed, I scarcely realized what happened. Do you know anything regarding my father?"

"Oh, yes, I can put your mind at ease so far as he is concerned. I presume you were endeavoring to reach his post when this unfortunate affair occurred."

"Yes."

"Sheridan has ordered Devere abandoned for the present, the major's troops are to return to Dodge. No doubt we shall be in within a week or two. But cultivate acquaintance later; you must straighten out this matter before we again, and turned still to Hamlin, who had dismounted, his manner instantly changing. He was a short, heavily built man, cleanly shaven, with dark, arrogant eyes, and prominent chin.

"You are a sergeant of the Seventh, you said," he began brusquely. "What were you doing here?"

"My troop is stationed at Fort Union," was the quiet response. "I carried despatches to Devere, and while there was requested by Major McDonald to intercept his daughter and turn her back."

"Were you subject to Major McDonald's orders?"

"It was not an order, but a request."

"Oh, indeed; a mere pleasure excursion."

"It has hardly turned out that way, sir, and conditions seemed to justify my action."

"That is for others to determine. When was the attack made?"

"Just before sundown last evening. The driver and guard escaped on the lead horses, and the wheelers ran away, wrecking the coach."

"There were four passengers?"

"Yes; we fought them off until after dark, although the Mexican was killed by the first fire. I don't know when the other man got his."

"Who were they?"

"Gonzales ran a high-ball game at Santa Fe; the other, Moylan, was post-sutler at Fort Mercy."

"How many Indians? Who were they?"

"About thirty; we must have killed five or six. It was hardly more than daylight when they left, and I could not tell just how many bodies they strapped on the ponies. They were a mixed bunch of young bucks, principally Arapahoes, led by Roman Nose."

"Went west, hey?"

"Yes, sir."

The lieutenant turned his gaze up the river, and then looked at Wasson, who remained seated in the saddle.

"Must be the same lot Maxwell told us about up on Pawnee Fork, Sam," he said at last. "He will be likely to cut their trail some time today. We knew a bunch had headed south, but didn't suppose they had got as far as this already. Better leave Maxwell to run them in, I suppose? Our orders are to return to Dodge."

"They haven't three hours the start," ventured Hamlin in surprise, "and cannot travel fast with so many of their ponies doubly loaded."

"That is for me to decide," staring insolently, "and I understand my duty without any advice. Is there any damage done west of here?"

"The station at the crossing is burned; two dead men there; I don't know what became of the third."

"Then it is just as I thought; those fellows will turn north before they get that far, and will run straight into Maxwell. What do you say, Sam?"

The scout lolled carelessly in the saddle, his eyes on the river, his lean, brown face expressionless.

"I reckon as how it don't make no great difference what I say," he answered soberly. "Yer ain't taken no advice from me yet, fur as I remember. But if yer really want ter know, this time, my notion is them bucks will most likely hide in the bluffs till night, an' then sneak past Maxwell after it gets good an' dark. If this yere was my outfit now, I'd just naturally light on to the trail fast, orders or no orders. I reckon it's injuns we cum out after, an' I don't suppose the war department would find any fault if we found a few."

The blood surged into the lieutenant's face, but opposition only served to increase his obstinacy.

"I prefer to rely on my own judgment," he said tartly. "From what this man reports they are in stronger force than we are. Besides my instructions were not to provoke hostilities."

Wasson grinned, revealing his yellow teeth.

"Sure not; they are so damned peaceable themselves."

"I prefer leaving Captain Maxwell to deal with the situation," Gaskins went on pompously, ignoring the sneer, "as he outranks me, and I am under strict instructions to return at once to the fort. Two of our horses are disabled already, and Smiley is too sick to be left alone. I'll not risk it. Well," he broke off suddenly, and addressing a corporal who had just ridden up and saluted, "have you buried the bodies?"

"Yes, sir; found these papers on them."

The lieutenant thrust these into his jacket pocket.

"Very well, Hough. Form the men into column. Miss McDonald, you will retain the horse you have, and I should be very glad to have you ride with me. Oh, corporal, was everything in the coach destroyed? Nothing saved belonging to this lady?"

"Only the ironwork is left, sir."

"So I thought; exceedingly sorry, Miss McDonald. The ladies at Dodge will fit you out when we get in. I am a bachelor, you know," he added, glancing aside into her face, "but can promise every attention."

Her eyes sought Hamlin where he stood straight and motionless, respectfully waiting an opportunity to speak.

"Is—is this what I ought to do?" she questioned, leaning toward him.

"I am so confused I hardly know what is best."

"Why, of course," broke in the lieutenant hastily. "You may trust me to advise."

"But my question was addressed to Sergeant Hamlin," she interposed, never glancing aside.

"He understands the situation better than you."

The sergeant held his hat in his hand, his eyes meeting her own frankly.

"But My Question Was Addressed to Sergeant Hamlin," She interposed.

ly, but with a new light in them. She had not forgotten now the danger was over; she meant him to realize her friendship.

"It seems to me the only safe course for you to take, Miss McDonald," he said slowly, endeavoring to keep the note of triumph out of his voice. "Your father is perfectly safe, and will join you within a few days. I would not dare attempt your protection farther west."

"You are not going with us then?" she questioned in surprise.

"Not if Lieutenant Gaskins will furnish me with horse and rifle. I must report at Union, and, on the way, tell your father where you are."

"But the danger! oh, you mustn't attempt such a ride alone!"

"That is nothing; the valley is swept clean, and I shall do most of my riding at night. Any plainsman could do the trick—hey, Sam?"

Wasson nodded, chewing solemnly on the tobacco in his cheek.

"He'll make the trip all right, miss," he drawled lazily. "Wish I was going long. I'm sure tired of this sort of scoutin', I am. Down below the Cimarron is the only place y'all have ter watch out close, 'Brick.' Them Comanches an' Apaches are the worst lot."

"I know—night riders themselves, but I know the trail. Can you outfit me, Lieutenant?"

Gaskins smiled grimly, but with no trace of humor. His eyes were upon the girl, still leaning over her pony.

"I'll outfit you all right," he said brusquely, "and with no great regret, either. And I shall report finding you here in disobedience to orders."

"Very well, sir."

Molly's brown eyes swept to the lieutenant's face, her form straightening in the saddle, her lips pressed tightly together. Gaskins frowned the sergeant, stung into anger by the man's quiet response.

"I shall prefer charges, you understand," almost savagely. "Helm, give this fellow that extra rifle, and ammunition belt. McMasters, you will let him have your horse."

Wasson rolled out of his saddle, muttering something indistinctly, which might have been an oath.

"I ain't goin' ter stand fer that, lieutenant," he said defiantly. "Bein' as I ain't no enlisted man, an' this yere is my boss, 'Brick' Hamlin don't start on no such ride on that lame brute o' McMasters'. Here, you 'Brick,' take this critter. Oh! shut up! I'll git to Dodge all right. Won't hurt me none to walk."

The eyes of the two men met understandingly, and Hamlin took the rein in his hand. Gaskins started to speak, but thought better of it. A moment he stood, irresolute, and then swung up into saddle, his glance ignoring the sergeant.

"Attention! company," he commanded sharply. "By column four—march!"

The girl spurred her horse forward, and held out her hand.

"Good-by," she said, falteringly. "You—will be careful."

"Of course," and he smiled up into her eyes. "Don't worry about me—I am an old hand."

"And I am to see you again?"

"I shall never run away, surely, and I hope for the best."

"Miss McDonald," broke in Gaskins impatiently, "the men are already moving."

tered soldiers ordered to central points in preparation for the contemplated movement. Devere had been deserted earlier, and Major McDonald had marched his men to Dodge, where Molly awaited his coming. Retained there on garrison duty, the two occupied a one-story, yellow stone structure fronting the parade ground. In October, orders to march reached "M" troop, Seventh Cavalry, at Fort Union, and the ragged, bronzed troopers, who all summer long had been scouting the New Mexican plains, turned their horses' heads to the northeast in hopefulness of action. With them up the deserted Santa Fe trail, past burned stations and wrecks of wagon trains, rode Sergeant Hamlin, silent and efficient, the old Confederate haversack fastened to his saddle, and his mind, in spite of all effort, recurring constantly to the girl who had gone to Dodge early in the summer. Was she still there? If so, how would she greet him now after these months of absence? The little cavalry column, dust-covered and weary, seemed fairly to creep along, as day by day he reviewed every word, every glance, which had passed between them; and at night, under the stars, he lay with head on his saddle, endeavoring to determine his course of action, both as to their possible meeting, and with regard to the following of the clue offered by the haversack. The time he had hoped for was at hand, but he could not decide the best course of action. He could only wait, and permit Fate to interfere.

Certain facts were, however, sufficiently clear, and the Sergeant faced them manfully. Not merely the fact that he was in the ranks, great as that handicap was, could have prevented an attempt at retaining the friendship of Molly McDonald. But he was in the ranks because of disgrace—hiding away from his own people, keeping aloof from his proper station in life, out of bitter shame. If he had felt thus before, he now felt it a thousand times more acutely in memory of the comradeship of her whose words had brought him a new gleam of hope. Never before had loneliness seemed so complete, and never before had he realized how wide was the chasm between the old and the new life. This constantly recurring memory embittered him, and made him restless. Yet out of it all, there grew a firmer determination to win back his old position in the world, to stamp out the lie through which the Confederate court-martial had condemned him. If Le Fevre were alive, he meant now to find him, face him, and compel him to speak the truth. The discovery of that haversack gave a point from which to start, and his mind centered there with a fixed purpose which obscured all else.

THREE DEAD; 13 HURT

Lodging House Fire in Frisco Sweeps Entire Block.

Firemen Confident Many Lost Their Lives of Whom No Trace Will Ever Be Found.

San Francisco, Jan. 10.—Three known dead and thirteen more or less seriously injured, some of them fatally, completes the list of known casualties in an early morning lodging house fire, which swept nearly a block of territory lying on the north side of Howard street between East and Stewart streets here.

The buildings destroyed were the Maritime and San Pedro lodging houses, both flimsy two-story frame structures given over to the trade of the men of the sea.

Three narrow exits from the two buildings were the only means of escape the lodgers had from the blazing boxes of death and the army of firemen searching in the ruins for bodies are confident many lost their lives of whom no trace will ever be found.

The registers of both lodging houses were destroyed and the number and names of the missing guests are unknown.

Among the more seriously injured are members of the fire department, who had difficulty battling the stubborn flames and effecting their work of rescue.

The fire is believed to have been caused by crossed electric wires.

It will bear the word "Liberty" and the date of coinage on one side instead of the female liberty head.

Will receive all his professional services free until cured.

Sterling, Ill., Hotel Galt, Thursday, Jan. 16
Hours: 9:00 A. M. to 8:00 P. M.

What Dr. R. S. Piper Does

He treats all Chronic diseases of MAN or WOMAN that are curable, no matter how long standing. He fits GLASSES to the EYES accurately by an entirely new method known only to himself; he does not blind you for a week by putting drops in your eye. He invites the most difficult cases to call on him and try his new method FREE OF CHARGE. He also removes WARTS and MOLES from any part of the body by a wonderful and painless method that leaves no scar.

He Wants the Worst Cases

—the so-called incurable cases—the hopeless (?) cases in order to prove what his successful treatment will do. Ninety-nine per cent of his cures are performed in cases which have been pronounced incurable, and who have tried so many other treatments and taken so much medicine that they have become completely discouraged. These have come to Dr. R. S. Piper and have found health and happiness. Why not let him cure you? Many of you who have been taking medicine and so-called treatments for months will be absolutely cured in a few days. Very chronic cases will require somewhat longer time, but it will make no difference; you will be treated free, remedies excepted, until you say, 'I am cured.'

Diseases of Men

There are no diseases so destructive to the health, happiness and prosperity of man as Lost Vitality, Blood Poison, Syphilis, Stricture, Varicocele, Drains, Losses, Discharges, Urinary Troubles and other diseases from which men alone suffer. Such diseases rarely cause death, but they produce a condition of mental and bodily suffering that is worse than death. There are no diseases about which physicians in general know so little and treat so carelessly.

Diseases of Women

Dr. Piper's system of treatment saves suffering women from dangerous surgical operations. It has proved efficient, reliable and successful in all manner of diseases of women. It has cured the most severe cases of Inflammation and Congestion of the Womb, Inflammation and Congestion of the Ovaries, Leucorrhoea, Backache, Ulceration, Falling of the Womb, Irregular, Profuse, Painful Menstruation, etc. The remarkable success of the modern, painless treatment is attested to by scores and hundreds of cured patients while its value has been indorsed by some of the most prominent medical writers in the country.

All Diseases

All curable afflictions can be cured by Dr. Piper's treatment—many that others consider incurable—no matter how many remedies you have vainly tried—no matter how many other doctors have failed. Curing DESPERATE CHRONIC CASES is Dr. Piper's specialty. ARE YOU SUFFERING from belching of gas or food from the stomach, pain or distress in the stomach, breaking out on the skin, constipation, creepy or numb sensations in the limbs, the effects of an old time illness, despondency, melancholia, loss of ambition, loss of vital energy, wasting diseases, deep seated blood diseases, epilepsy, fits, asthma, eczema, gall bladder trouble, varicocele, early abuses, headaches, pain in the back or the side, dizziness, rheumatism, acute infections, auto-intoxication, nervous prostration, locomotor ataxia, dyspepsia, biliousness, heart disease, kidney and bladder disease, lung trouble, catarrh of the head, diseased eyes, reduced vision, female diseases, nervous exhaustion, or any evidence of breaking down in MAN or WOMAN? Thousands have been cured in the past—many just like your case. Won't you let him cure you? A friendly call may save you much suffering; it has made life anew to thousands who had been pronounced beyond help.

MANY A TELEGRAPH READER WILL BE INTERESTED

When people read about the cures made by a medicine endorsed from far away, is it surprising that they wonder if the statements are true? But when they read of cases right here at home, positive proof is within their reach, for close investigation is an easy matter. Read Dixon endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills.

N. W. Beal, 626 College Ave., Dixon, Ill., says: "All I said in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago holds good and I am glad to confirm my statement. For a long time I had kidney trouble and it showed itself in various ways. I had rheumatic twinges, my back was stiff and lame and when bending over, I could hardly straighten. When I was suffering intensely, I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Leake Bros. Co's. Drug Store. They gave me wonderful relief in a short time and I still use them, thus keeping my kidneys in good shape."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Different From Anything You're Reading!

That's THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, and Here's the Proof in This Week's Issue

Knowing How About Hogs

If a man can raise hogs that are good enough to win the highest honors at the greatest livestock show in the world he must know something about what is good for a hog. That's what we thought when we asked H. T. Morgan to write us an article on what to put into a hog to get the most out of him. More than once Mr. Morgan has brought far hogs to the International Livestock Exposition that won highest honors on foot and on the block. A hog that wins in the carcass contest has been fed rightly. Morgan knows how. Read his article.

A Lot of Little Worlds

Down in Maryland Nature has made a ragged job of the shore line. Every few miles there is a long inlet or estuary and boats run away up into the country to get the farmer's produce. Farmers fifteen miles apart have different boat lines, and for that reason they don't get together as often as most farmers. Going across a river presents more difficulties than crossing the road—the hen stays on the other side, too. J. Russell Smith went down there and found that each little peninsula was a little world by itself, growing its own peculiar crops. He has written several articles about these rich little worlds that are surrounded by oyster beds. This is the first of the series.

My Little Farm

This is a story written by a man who is "his own boss" and who doesn't "believe in cutting wood with a buckaw." He came from England a poor man and settled in Canada. His first job was with a truck gardener, and he tells how he improved on his employer's methods and finally came to own a farm of his own. It is a simple story of a man who worked with his shirt and his mind open.

Eating Our Heads Off

That is what some of us are doing. Indigestion is the great American disease. It's a sneak. You go on peacefully eating until it creeps on you and makes you think something else is the matter with you. Heart disease, liver complaints, headaches, are usually only fancy disguises of indigestion. The human body is like a gasoline engine which, when loaded up on poor gasoline, gradually clogs up, slows down and stops. The farmer has the finest food available, but does he use it rightly? Dr. Roger J. Perkins tells of the evils of Pie and Fry.

The Cereal of The South

We have a growing rice industry. This food crop, the mainstay of several nations, can be grown to perfection on many adaptable lands in the Southern States. It is immensely profitable where well managed. It does not unduly exhaust the soil; it is a crop worth studying. Read about it in the article, "Where Rice is King," by F. G. Moorhead.

A Corncob Conserver

"The reason men succeed who mind their own business is because they have so little competition." This is the motto that hangs in the living-room of a Kansas farmer. He has minded his own business so well that he now owns a lot of rich prairie land and the biggest battery of silos in the country. He is one of those fellows who puts the oil where the squeak is. He says a moving-machine ought to last fifteen years. His did. He doesn't waste his corn cobs, either. Charles Dillon has written a mighty interesting article on this man and his farm. You'll like it.

Cashing-In Farm Credit

The vital fact in all this rural credit agitation frequently overlooked is: What has the farmer to offer for the money he wants to borrow? How will he pay it back, even if the loan is for a long term of years? What secures the investment? What is the greatest asset of a farm? Why must methods be improved before cash will be forthcoming? These and a dozen other pertinent questions are answered by Mr. B. F. Harris, the Illinois farmer-banker. He knows the farmer's side because he runs a farm of his own; and he knows the banker's side because that is his chief business. What he says is fundamental and mighty important.

Sixteen Years of Plenty

Secretary James Wilson has directed the United States Department of Agriculture through a period of the greatest development of American farming. His report, just issued, is a historic document, tracing the expansion of agriculture through these years of increasing farm production. Read the summary. It is inspiring and suggestive, and a weather-vane of the future of farming.

A Paragraph That Men Can Skip

During the coming year we shall devote more space to the distaff side of the household. And we shall do this, not by taking away anything from the man's department, but by increasing the size of the weekly. Space does not permit us to tell here all our plans for the countrywoman; but these plans include the woman's sphere from cellar to garret and from hedge-row to hedge-row; and her clothes from head to foot. In this number we begin a fashion department for women, which will appear fortnightly—oftener if there is a large demand for it. Nor shall we forget the woman's church and social life, her children and the schools.

EVERYMAN'S GARDEN

Are you willing to pay a few cents a week for a year's instruction, telling you every week, almost in words of one syllable, what to do with that little garden of yours? You are too wrapped up in business to take time enough to learn gardening—but you insist on pottering and your garden and blaming the seedsman for your failures. It's our job to prevent the failures. And we propose to do it each week of the coming year in a simple, practical way.

COLONEL HITS FUSION

Roosevelt Rejects Plan Advanced by Frank Munsey.

Holds That Progressives Might as Well Unite With the Democrats
as Republicans.

New York, Jan. 10.—Theodore Roosevelt replied here to a proposal advanced by Frank A. Munsey to bring the Progressive and the Republican parties together. He held there was no more reason for the Progressives uniting with the Republicans than with the Democrats.

The colonel said: "I firmly believe that all good Progressives who may happen yet to adhere to either the Republican party or the Democratic party will in the end see that the chance for honest government and for the practical achievement of social and industrial justice lies only in the Progressive party. I hold that we are under the same obligations to ex-Democrats, like Judge Lindsey and Don Dickinson, as to any ex-Republicans."

Elsewhere in his statement Mr.
Roosevelt asserted that the Republicans 'had shown that under the present management of the party they cannot be trusted not to cheat, not to swindle."

"Moreover, the doctrine of the present Republican managers about the courts is just at present being practically applied in Idaho. The courts of Idaho are acting along the lines that Mr. Taft, Mr. Barnes and other Republican leaders uphold and defend.
The Progressives take the same view of the Idaho case that Abraham Lincoln took of the Dred Scott case. We take the same view of justice that Lincoln took, and of the rights of the people to be masters of the Constitution, of the courts and of the congress that Lincoln took."

"In conclusion Mr. Roosevelt said:
"All honest men who believe in these principles, both as regards those set forth in the platform and those in accordance with which we manage the party, will be welcomed into our ranks. We will treat them on an entire equality with ourselves, and will work hand in hand and shoulder to shoulder with them for the betterment of the social, industrial and political conditions of this great nation."

CONFER WITH WILSON

Senators O'Gorman and Culberson See President-Elect.

Governor Accepts Essex Troop of Cavalry of Newark as Personal Escort at Inauguration.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 10.—President-elect Wilson had an important two hour conference here with Senator O'Gorman of New York and Senator
Culberson of Texas.

The governor has accepted the Essex troop of cavalry of Newark as his personal escort at the inauguration, but he has also expressed a wish that a place be found in the line of march for the 1,000 Princeton undergraduates who desire to accompany him at the inauguration. The only reason the students could not be designated as his personal escort is that the rules require a mounted military organization. The students, however, will act as an escort from Princeton to Washington.

Senators O'Gorman and Culberson declined to discuss their conference with the president-elect.
Denver, Colo., Jan. 10.—"Keep your official hands out of the woman suffrage scraps in the New Jersey legislature, unless perchance you are for woman suffrage," is the essence of a resolution adopted by the Colorado Equal Suffrage association. The resolution was forwarded to the president-elect with the compliments of the members and also members of every Democratic woman's organization in Colorado.

funeral had been made and the grave dug, when it was learned that Naumann's will directed that the body be cremated. The body then was brought to St. Louis for cremation and the

HELEN GOULD TO WED SOON

Announced Marriage Is to Be at Her Country Place Next Week.

New York, Jan. 10.—The marriage of Miss Helen Gould to Pinley J.
Shepard of St. Louis is expected to be celebrated next week. It is asserted that Miss Gould has fixed the date of the wedding, and that invitations will be issued within a few days, but as these are to be confined to near relatives and friends, and a home wedding is decided on in preference to a church affair, the arrangements will be kept as private as possible. The wedding will be held at Miss Gould's country place at Irvington-on-the-Hudson.
